

Dhow Cruise Deira: A Journey Through Old Dubai's Heartbeat

When it comes to experiencing the authentic charm of Dubai, nothing compares to a Dhow Cruise Deira. Nestled along the historic Dubai Creek, this traditional boat tour offers a serene escape from the city's modern hustle, giving visitors a glimpse into the region's rich maritime heritage.

What is a Dhow Cruise?

A dhow is a traditional wooden boat once used for pearl diving and fishing in the Arabian Gulf. Today, these vessels have been beautifully restored and converted into floating restaurants, providing a unique platform for sightseeing, dining, and entertainment. The Dhow Cruise in Deira sails through the ancient waterway of Dubai Creek, dividing the city into its two historic districts: Deira and Bur Dubai.

Scenic Views and Cultural Vibes

As the cruise glides through the calm waters, guests enjoy panoramic views of Dubai's heritage architecture, bustling souks, and minarets. The Deira side of the creek is especially famous for its spice and gold souks, traditional markets that have stood the test of time.

The cruise usually lasts around two hours and includes a welcome drink, a lavish buffet dinner with both local and international dishes, and live entertainment such as Tanoura dance performances and soothing Arabic music.

Why Choose Dhow Cruise Deira?
